also discuss how shared as these practices will be participants develop collaborative learning.

Dr. Hendry Ton, Associate Vice Chancellor for Health Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

Tuesday, February 22

CAMPSSAH Presents a Musical Performance and Book Talk with Juan Diego Diaz
12:00PM–1:00PM
Student Community Center Multipurpose Room

Please join The Center for Advancement of Multicultural Perspectives in Social Science, Arts, and Humanities (CAMPSSAH), for some musical performances and a talk with Juan Diego Diaz about his new book, Africaness in Action: Essentialism and Musical Imaginations of Africa in Brazil Carnival Samba performance led by Brian Rice, Capoeira performance led by Juan Diego Diaz. Moderator: Kimberly Netles-Barcelón

RSVP in Person HERE! RSVP Virtual HERE!

Wednesday, February 23

Faculty & Teaching Assistants Workshop: Five Approaches to Anti-Racist Teaching
12:00PM–1:30PM
Memorial Union-Garrison Room

Participants will engage with the five practical components of Kishimoto’s (2018) anti-racist teaching practices: (1) addressing assumptions to cultivate students’ critical analytical skills; (2) generating new ideas as well as learn about the DEI initiatives that are currently in place on campus. The Student Advisors to the Chancellor will then share their work on DEI projects and encourage continued student participation in DEI efforts. RSVP HERE!

Wednesday, February 23

Student Assistants to the Chancellor Cayley Chan & Sara Sayyid present “How Students Can Become More Involved Campus Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Efforts”
12:00PM - 1:00PM

Virtual

In this presentation, the Student Advisors to the Chancellor will facilitate a discussion between student attendees and Vice Chancellor of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, Renetta Garrison-Tull, Ph.D. about student perspectives on what diversity, equity and inclusion means to them, personal experiences related to those topics, and how they believe the administration can improve and foster DEI among the UC Davis community. Student participants will have the opportunity to share their own stories, opinions, and ideas as well as learn about the DEI initiatives that are currently in place on campus. The Student Advisors to the Chancellor will then share their work on DEI projects and encourage continued student participation in DEI efforts. RSVP HERE!

Wednesday, February 23

Interfaith Campus Council (ICC) dialogue 6:00PM–8:00PM
CAHouse, 433 Russell Blvd, Davis, CA (register below to attend in-person or join us in Zoom)

Join the Interfaith Campus Council (ICC) for a dialogue about their work with the UC Davis student community. The panelists will share how they build connections across diverse faith communities to cultivate interfaith leaders for the campus and beyond. A light meal will be served. Also, for your safety and the safety of others masks and proof of vaccination (including boosters) are required. RSVP HERE!

Wednesday, February 23

Campus Community Book Project, Community Book Dialogue and Discussion: “How To Be An Antiracist”, by Ibram X Kendi
5:30PM–7:00PM
Guild Theater, 2828 35th Street, Sacramento, CA

Panelists: Dr. Milmo F. Harrison, Associate Professor African/African American Studies, UC Davis; Dominique Donette, NAACP Sacramento & Hawaii; Lobbyist and Public Affairs Specialist; Kula Koenig, Generative Rev., United Way California Capital Region. Moderator: Rev. Kevin Kittrell Ross, Senior Minister and Chief Executive Officer of Unity of Sacramento Church. Sponsored by UC Davis, Sac: Cultural Hub and Underground Books.

RSVP HERE!

Thursday, February 24

UC Davis Staff Assembly’s new series Aggie Explorations kicks off featuring Dr. Lina Mendez, Director of Hispanic Serving Institution Initiatives
12:00PM-1:00PM
Virtual

Attendees will learn about the work of the first-ever HSI Director and her role in supporting HSI initiatives on campus as well as students. Lina Mendez, Director of Hispanic Serving Institution Initiatives. Lina Mendez has been with UC Davis for over 18 years, and was appointed in Fall 2021 as the inaugural director of Hispanic Serving Institution Initiatives at UC Davis. RSVP HERE!

Monday, February 28

Trans Allyship Workshop
2:00PM-3:30PM
Virtual

The LGBTQIA Resource Center is proud to provide virtual opportunities for staff, faculty, and students to expand their understanding of queer and trans allyship. Workshop content will cover trans student experiences, the importance of pronouns, and trans allyship tips. Panelists: Jasper Lounds (they/them) is the Resource Center Coordinator for the LGBTQIA RC here at UC Davis. They focus their work on trans empowerment and joy. RSVP HERE!

Wednesday, March 2

What is "Street Medicine" and Why Does It Exist?
12:00PM-1:00PM
Virtual

The Staff Diversity Administrative Advisory Committee (SDAAC) presents Brett Feldman, Physician Assistant, who will share insights and experiences about “street medicine”, homelessness and working this marginalized community. The talk will focus on exploring and answering the following questions: What is “Street Medicine” and how does it serve the unsheltered homeless community? What barriers do people experiencing homelessness face in accessing healthcare? What is the social teaching of street medicine and why does it work when treating people experiencing homelessness? What can hospitals do to better treat people experiencing homelessness? RSVP HERE!